

TOTAL POPULATION AND PERCENT CHURCH MEMBERS IN NORTHEAST THAILAND BY DISTRICT

This map shows the distribution of church members in Northeast Thailand broken down by district (Amphur). The yellow-orange-red colored districts have at least one church. The variation in color represents the percentage of population that are church members. The blue colored districts have no known church. The gradation of color represents population, with the darkest blue representing the district with the highest total population.

Total population: 21.4 million
Protestant churches: 748
Protestant Christians: 34,000
Percentage of Christians: 0.16%

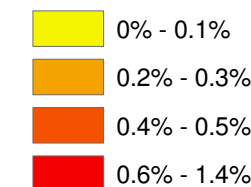

Total districts: 322
Districts without churches: 90
Population of districts without churches: 3,5 million
(16% of population)

Legend

⊙ Provincial Capital

□ District

Church Members (% of Population)

Population of Districts with No Existing Church

